

Edelweiss Air presents its winter flight schedule 2010/11

Edelweiss Air's winter flight schedule comes with a wide range of attractive innovations in the long-haul and medium-haul segments. Furthermore, Switzerland's leading leisure airline has some exciting news to convey.

1. Long-haul flights

New destination: Mauritius

Starting in November, Edelweiss Air will conduct a weekly flight to Mauritius (on Mondays). This dream destination in the Indian Ocean is a very popular island paradise among Swiss visitors and offers a choice of premium hotels.

New destination: Tanzania – Kilimanjaro Airport

Kilimanjaro Airport is the starting point for visits to tourist attractions such as the Serengeti National Park, the Ngorongoro Crater, Lake Victoria or the Kilimanjaro mountain range. Edelweiss Air will be flying to this exclusive destination on Sundays, from November until February, in combination with the destination Mombasa (Kenya). This allows for ideal possibilities to combine safaris in Tanzania with a beach holiday on the Kenyan coast.

3 flights a week to the Caribbean

Edelweiss Air flies to the following destinations in the Caribbean: Punta Cana and Puerto Plata in the Dominican Republic, Varadero in Cuba combined with Cancun in Mexico as well as directly to Punta Cana, from Tuesday to Thursday.

3 flights a week to the Maldives, one weekly flight combined with Goa

Swiss conducts three flights per week to the Maldives, from Friday to Sunday, on behalf of Edelweiss Air. A larger and comfortable business class is offered on these flights. The Sunday flight also services Goa in India with a stopover.

Direct flight to Phuket in Thailand

Following last winter's big success, Edelweiss Air will again be conducting a direct flight to Phuket in the 2010/11 winter season (on Saturdays).

2. Medium-haul flights

New: 3 flights a week to the trendy city of Marrakech

Marrakech in Morocco is currently the trendiest city in North Africa. With Edelweiss Air, it can be visited for individual and flexible lengths of stay or as a starting point for round trips to the imperial cities or the desert. The flight days are Tuesday, Thursday (via Agadir) and Saturday.

The Canary Islands – a comprehensive choice of flights

In the 2010/11 winter season, Edelweiss Air will offer a comprehensive choice of flights to the Canary Islands. There will be 3 weekly flights to Gran Canaria (Monday, Wednesday and Saturday), 2 weekly flights to Tenerife (Wednesday and Saturday) and one weekly flight to Lanzarote and Fuerteventura.

8 flights per week to the Red Sea

Edelweiss Air's flight schedule for winter 2010/11 also includes a total of 8 flights per week to the four attractive diving, beach and excursion destinations Sharm-el-Sheik, Hurghada, Marsa Alam and Luxor in Upper Egypt.

3. General

All Edelweiss Air flights in code share with SWISS

All Edelweiss Air flights are in code share with SWISS. Accordingly, these flights can also be combined with scheduled flights of SWISS. The following combined trips are especially recommendable: the East Africa flight Kilimanjaro and Mombasa (Edelweiss Air) combined with Nairobi and Dar es Salaam (SWISS), the flight to Mauritius (Edelweiss Air) with Johannesburg (SWISS) or the Phuket flight (Edelweiss Air) with Bangkok (SWISS).

The most comprehensive choice of flights to Kosovo and Macedonia

With 12 weekly flights to Pristina and four weekly flights to Skopje, Edelweiss Air offers the most comprehensive range of flights to these Balkan regions.

Flight reservations can be made via larger travel operators, travel agencies or via the web pages www.edelweissair.ch or www.swiss.com. The medium-haul flights can be booked already, the long-haul flights will be available for purchase starting 27 April, 2010.
